

OFFICIAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN

Emblem
Lorestan Province General Justice Department
Division No.      of Family Court of      County Justice Department

Written Judgment

Written Judgment No.:

Date of Issue:

Case Ref:

Branch Archive No.:

Case Ref                      , Division No.      of Family Court of                      County Justice Department, Written Judgment No.:

Plaintiff:

1. Ms.                                      daughter of                                      represented by Ms.                                      , daughter of                                      with the following address:

2. Mr.                                      son of                                      with the following address:

Relief Sought:

Divorce by Mutual Consent

Court Judgment

Regarding the petition presented by Ms.                                      daughter of                                      represented by Ms.                                      against Mr.                                      son of                                      with the relief sought of asking for issuance of certificate of non-reconciliation (Divorce by Mutual Consent); the court taking into account the content of the file and acknowledgement of the parties and marriage certificate number                                      issued by marriage registry office number      of                                      , permanent marriage of the spouses is proved and due to insist of the spouses for divorce and separate and since the efforts of the court had no effect and due to discord between the spouses, the court based on articles 25, 26, and 29 of the family support act approved in 2012 and opinion of the judge, the counsellor of the court issued the certificate of non-reconciliation of the spouses and said that due to the explicit acknowledgement of the parties in the court, the wife is not virgin and according to the acknowledgement of the wife and opinion of the trusted physician of the court on                                      issued in                                      county, she is not pregnant at the present time; therefore, the spouses may refer to one of the divorce registry offices by observance of the following matters and divorce Ms.                                      for the first time for Khula Baen Divorce: 1- The wife bestowed all marriage portion and fair remuneration and alimony of the present and eddeh period to the husband and the husband accepted the bestowal. 2- The furniture and equipment in the house shall be delivered to the wife, 3- The parties have a common      -year-old girl named                                      that according to her age, the court has no assignment regarding custody and visiting period and the child may make decision herself in this regard. The issued judgment is in person and may be objected in courts of appeal of                                      province within      days after being notified.

Head of Division No.      of Family Court of

Address:

Originality of the written judgment is certified.

Signed and sealed by                                      Province General Justice Department - Division No.      of Family Court of                                      County Justice Department

Certified to be a true translation from original Persian text

Official English Language Translator to the Judiciary