

*Official Translation from Persian
Emblem of the Islamic Republic of Iran*

The Judiciary

Dispute Settlement Council Branch No.      of      Province

Probate Certificate

Date:

No.

Classification Code:

Written Judgment No.

Ms.                      , holder of ID Card No.                      , according to presented petition, death certificate, and certified copy of the heirs applied under No.                      and declared that the demised Mr.                      holder of ID Card No.                      , has passed away on                      and the inheritor on the date of death is as follows:

1- Mr.                      , son of                      , holder of ID Card No.                      , issued to him in                      , son of demised.

2- Mr.                      , son of                      , holder of ID Card No.                      , issued to him in                      , son of demised.

3- Ms.                      , daughter of                      , holder of ID Card No.                      , issued to him in                      , daughter of demised.

The council upon fulfillment of the legal technicalities, publishing the relevant notice in the newspaper and not receiving any bills and objection and/or confidential or official testaments, the relevant court was held by the signatories on                      in Extraordinary time of the Branch                      of                      Complex of the Dispute Settlement Council and upon observing the workflow do hereby certify that the heirs of said deceased person is the above mentioned person only and there are no other heirs and the late person's property upon payment and deduction of the charged debts to the heir will be divided as follow:

According to provisions of Article                      of Civil Code, the legacy will be divided among the children that a son receives 2 shares and a daughter receives 1 share.

The legal validity of this certification is unlimited in terms of the amounts.

Signed & Sealed: Judge of Branch                      of                      Complex of the Dispute Settlement Council

---

Certified to be a true translation from original Persian text
Official English Language Translator to the Judiciary